CSULB Ethnic Studies Classes – Offered at LBUSD High Schools

The Long Beach Unified School District is partnering with California State University, Long Beach to offer a 3-unit college-credit course, U. S. Diversity and the Ethnic Experience to all current high school students in grades 11-12. This is the first in a series of courses to be offered by LBUSD through the CSULB Ethnic Studies departments.

Course Description
U. S. Diversity and the Ethnic Experience: a survey of the four major ethnic groups in American society (Native American, African American, Chicano/Latino, and Asian American) from the colonial era to the present. Special attention is given to the formation and collective roles in the development of the United States.

Why Enroll?
University credit – 3 units and
High School credit – 10 units
No cost to students
CSULB student ID and email account
Access to all CSULB library and media resources, BeachBoard learning technology

Class Schedule
Fall Semester 2015, Saturdays, 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

High School Locations
Cabrillo, Jordan, Lakewood, Millikan, Poly, Wilson

Students will be expected to perform all the requirements of this college-credit course, attend all class sessions and a full-day conference at CSULB on Saturday, October 31, 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Students interested in the course must attend an orientation session with a parent on Thursday, September 3rd at 7:00 p.m. in the high school library. Specific details regarding class requirements and activities will be reviewed.

For additional information, please contact:

Armando Vazquez-Ramos, Coordinator
Long Beach Ethnic Studies Program, CSULB
Armando.Vazquez-Ramos@csulb.edu

Carol Ortega, Head Counselor
Long Beach Unified School District
cortega@lbschools.net